ZOEDONE

THE NEW DRINK
A restoring & stimulating but non-alcoholic
BEVERAGE
Letter from Dr Lucas, Bombay, Medical Dept. Author of the Elements of Indian Hygiene etc.
"I am of opinion that your invaluable aerated beverage Zoedone deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public. It is not only a health giving drink but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of Iron, Lime, Potash, and Soda, a health restoring drink par excellence, reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes and canteens. To weakly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, &c this etc."
Letter from Geo. S. A. Ranke ing, M.A. M.D., Cantab. Surgeon, Indian Medical Department.
"I am of opinion that in Zoedone is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the Medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if Zoedone be introduced into India it will meet the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous system without impairing their liver."

NEWSPAPER REPORTS:
Messrs. Parry & Co. sent us a sample of canned corned beef, put up by McCall & Co., at Tuyu, in this province. We have tested and tasted the same, and found it fully equal in all respects to the celebrated American canned corned beef, of which one house imported in one year 208,000 cans. The quality of the beef, and of tongue, in its cooking and preservation, leaves nothing to be desired, while naturally the price is much lower than the imported article; and, besides, we welcome the enterprise all the more heartily because it is of home production. We shall be pleased when we supply our own preserved meats and fruits, our own lard and butter, in fact, everything we consume, excepting teas and spices.—The Herald, April 2, 1881.
We are glad to see that the verdict of our colleagues in reference to Messrs. Parry's Argentine Corned Beef, made by McCall and Co., is the same as our own—incomparable. It speaks volumes for the progress of the country to see Argentines appreciating corned beef, which, a few years ago, was looked on here as quite a plebeian dish. The man who can appreciate corned beef, sliced to the thinness of a wafer, with a dim smear of Colman's mustard on it, must have his stomach, if not his heart, in the right place.—The Standard, April 5 1881.
LAS CARNES CONSERVADAS.
Junto con la carta de los Sres. Parry y Ca., que ayer publicamos, recibimos dos tarros conteniendo el uno corned beef y lenguas el otro. Probamos de ambos, como tuvimos el gusto de anunciar al publico que lo hariamos, y tuvimos de gusto mayor, si cabe, de encontrar las conservas esquisitas.
Pero esto no es mas que nuestra opinion particular, que podriamos espresar diciendo que los Sres. Parry y Ca. conservan muy bien sus carnes.
Fuera de nuestra opinion al respecto, esta la consideracion de que estas conserves preparadas en el Tuyu especialmente para la casa Parry, significan la implantacion entre nosotros de una gran industria nacional, de una importancia tal, que por ser palmaria no necesitamos señalarla; nadie desconoce el desarrollo que ha tomado hoy la industria de conservacion de carnes.
Y si a esto se agrega la clase excelente, la superior calidad de las conservas de que hablamos, tendremos que es proceder con la mayor justicia el tributar un merecido elogio a los Sres Parry y Ca.—La Nacion, Abril 3 de 1881.
We have used the corned beef and tongue, and find it as good as the best American canned corned beef, and it is sold at a much lower price. We can fully recommend it to our readers, and we wish the enterprise the success it so well deserves.—The Herald, April 8, 1881.
La casa Parry y compania es la depositaria de las excelentes conservas de carnes hechas en la Republica, y que estan llamadas en cuanto la exportacion comience y sean conocidos en el estranjero una de sus verdaderas fuentes de riqueza.
La casa Parry, la primera en su genero, tiende y ofrece al publico, con condiciones ventajosas, los mas excelentes productos de consumo del pais y de ultramar.—El Correo Español, Abril 10 de 1881.
Il n'y a rien de plus inconnu a la Plata que les industries qui y prosperent: ainsi hier nous avons entendu parler pour la premiere fois de preparations de "corned beef" (boeuf fume) fabrique dans la province de B. Ayres par MM. McCall et Cie.
Ces messieurs ont installe une usine au Tuyu ou ils fabriquent du "corned beef" en boites absolument semblables comme conditionement et qualite a ceux que l'on exporte des Etats Unis.
Dans la Republique du Nord on a abattu l'annee dernier 368 mille tetes, pour les employer a la fabrication du "corned beef;" il y a la une mine fort riche a exploiter et nous ne voyons pas quelle raison empecheraient MM. MacCall et Cie. de lutter avec les Nord Americains.—L'Union Francaise, 1er. Avril 1881.
"Corned Beef" de Parry.—Asi como el laborioso de Bagley consiguio en muy poco tiempo derrotar por completo el accreditado fabricante de galletitas Palmer, de Reading y cerrar el mercado a los productos de aquel y de otros fabricantes estrangeros, por la superioridad reconocida de sus galletitas fabricadas en el pais, asi tambien estamos seguros de que las carnes conservadas de los Sres Parry y Cia preparadas en el Establecimiento del Sr. MacCall, en el Tuyu, acabaran por desterrar de nustros mercados los productos estrangeros del mismo ramo.
Tiene forzosamente la elaboracion de las carnes que dar buenos resultados en nuestro pais, por la abundancia, la superioridad y la baratura de la materia prima.
Asi lo han comprendido los Sres Parry y Ca que acaban de introducir en el mercado las carnes conservadas del Tuyu, que, en clase y condicion, pueden competir con ventaja con las conservas americanas y las venceran en menos tiempo quizas que el que creen los mismos Sres Parry, a quienes felicitamos muy sinceramente por la excelente calidad e inmejorable preparacion de su 'Corned Beef.'—El Comercio del Plata, Abril 9 de 1881.
We have mentioned before the enterprise of Messrs McCall & Co., in putting up corned beef, which is fully equal to any imported, and which is destined to find a wide market. Messrs Parry & Co., when they undertook to put it on the market, were advised to put a label on it which should disguise its origin and make it appear as if imported. With great wisdom they declined this, and boldly put out the fact that Argentines were beginning to prepare for use some of their own abundant resources, and the results have justified the policy, for an adequate supply has been difficult to get, and the merit of the article will keep it going. It is with pleasure that we give prominence to this beginning hoping that a long list of undertakings will follow this excellent lead—The Herald, April 14th, 1881.
Your notice of Messrs Parry & Co.'s Argentine Corned Beef, has made our mouths water. I hope that, unlike the immigration to the Argentine Republic, it will not all remain in Buenos Aires. We are, also, men and brothers, although we live north of the 'Arroyo del Medio.'—W. P., of Rosario.—The Standard April 14th, 1881.
EL SISTEMA McCOLL Y CA. PARA LA FABRICACION DE 'CORNED BEEF' EN LATAS.
Estos Sres. dueños de una importante fabrica en Tuyu, han confiado las diligencias de su propaganda a la acreditada casa de los Sres, Parry y Cia, Calle San Martin numero 112, en Buenos Aires.
Asi lo han comprendido tambien los inteligentes industriales que acaban de introducir en el mercado las carnes conservadas de Tuyu, que en clase y condicion pueden competir con ventaja con las conservas americanas a europeas y las venceran en muy poco tiempo.
Es cuestion de precio.
Segun los datos que hemos obtenido se utilizaran segun el sistema McColl y Cia, unicamente la mejor parte del animal.—La Exposicion de Buenos Aires, Abril, 1881.

Rome, 15th.

Cairoli and his Cabinet has again resigned, foreseeing that the settlement of the Tunisian Question will injure Italian interests there. The King has accepted, and has charged Quintino Sella, leader of the Right, to form a new Cabinet. The settlement of this Tunisian question has caused much discontent here.

Paris, 16th.

Telegrams from London and Rome show that the majority of the English and Italian newspapers criticise severely the attitude of the French Government in the Tunisian question.

NATIONAL PROGRESS

One of the greatest of errors is to attribute the present expansion of Argentine affairs to the new Railway loan, and yet on frequent occasions we have heard it said that our new progress will last until the loan is spent. People who so narrow their judgment of this country will ever remain in the rear.

The present improved position of Argentine affairs is solely and absolutely due to two solemn facts—

1st. The abolition of the Indians and the consequent gigantic extension of our frontier.

2nd. The capitalization of Buenos Ayres.

Without a new railway loan or extraneous aid in any shape, these two great events are ample in themselves to procure our present improved condition; but, if to these two national levers of prosperity we add the tide of foreign capital that since last October has flowed into this market, sweeping it clear of all our national stocks; if to these two great primary agents we unite an improved ability of administration and a gradually progressive industry in the interior, and ten millions of ready money coming in gold to us from Europe, we discover that there is nothing so very remarkable in all our progress.

A French merchant remarked on the Bolsa last Saturday that, to his mind, the Argentine Republic is only just born, and we fully coincide with him. The resources of the Plate are just dawning upon a primary development. A few years peace and favourable seasons will fetch goals for this country that scarcely anyone anticipates. Everything in the Republic may be safely said to be undervalued, and if it is given to us to write in these columns in the year 1884, we shall fling open the page of this paper to present our readers with the two pictures. Land in 1884 will be as impossible to purchase at 50,000 dollars a league as to-day it is at 10,000. Cows, that are considered up to the skies at $260 al 'corto' will be worth £15 a head for shipment to Europe, and territories which to-day are ignored by even the most enterprizing of our land brokers will be cut up and divided into cattle-farms and estancias.

In the old order of things a new loan was a great affair; it paved our streets with sovereigns and our quintas and cabbage gardens with paper dollars; but not a penny of it ever reached the Sauce Corto or the Rio Negro; to-day it is but a subsidiary element; we absorb it in our new railways, new estancias, new cattle rodeos, new sheepfarms, investments that are able to bear its weight and meet its service; it may possibly tend to accelerate a progress which it is as impotent to create as the people who lent the money.

When the Public Work's loan was negotiated the progress of the Argentine Republic, its industries, its advancement and its growth were in a flower pot. The soil was good, but the plant could never grow beyond the dimensions of the pot. To-day the growth of the country is a young spreading tree, planted in the earth, with 44,000 square leagues of the richest soil to hold its roots; that tree is growing faster than most people imagine; its branches are spreading, and it is cared by men who seek to make its branches spread to the uttermost limits of the Republic. Spite of political divisions, spite of the rancour of overthrown partyism, spite of the dissensions and disunion that have so long characterised the Argentine people, the material growth of the country is so rapid that it overcomes every obstacle; and in the noontide of a prosperity which none a year ago looked forward to, people forget the political past in contemplating the industrial future. General Roca and his Government rise on the high tide of a prosperity never before witnessed in this hemisphere; it is bearing him up over all the political rocks of the past River Plate, and carrying him on to placid waters where the storms of political localism are unknown.

Trifles light as air often indicate more than events considered the most solemn, and last week a matter occurred in this market which speaks as eloquently of Argentine progress as President Roca's splendid message. Du Cesario Ordonez, agent of the North Central Railway, arrived down, to purchase for the railway works four thousand spades and shovels, and he reports to the Minister that they are not to be had in the market. Thus whilst remingtons are for sale in every shop and every warehouse for half their cost, Spades and Shovels are at a high premium. We point to this simple fact to correct the erring judgment of many about this country. So long as spades and shovels are at a premium there is no fear for the nation; we have survived the 'Tiro' and remington epoch, and are now in the spade and shovel period, and it is the spade and the shovel, and the cows and the sheep, that are lifting the Republic to a premium both at home and abroad.

When Argentine Stocks were at their lowest in London!

When Argentine Credit was dragged down in the mire both at home and abroad.

When the blackest clouds hung over the Plate, and everything assumed the deepest gloom, we had but one advice for our friends, and that advice we now repeat

Buy! Buy! Buy!

London, April 17th.

It would not be surprising to hear if Lord Beaconsfield be succeeded as leader of the Conservative party either by the Duke of Richmond, or by the Marquis of Salisbury, or by Earl Cairns. Yet each of these nominations would lead to possible discontent or something more. The Duke of Richmond would probably be a safe, if not a brilliant, chief. On the other hand, if the Conservatives in the Upper House are determined to have a brilliant leader, a chief who can strike a heavy blow in debate and descend into the lists on equal terms with the Lord Chancellor, the Duke of Argyll, or Lord Granville, they must make their choice between Lord Salisbury and Lord Cairns.

The retirement of the Duke of Argyll from the Cabinet leaves a noticeable gap in the ranks of the Liberal party in the House of Lords. Lord Carlingford will not supply the place of the Duke of Argyll as a debater, but his intimate knowledge of Ireland and his known moderation will give him authority in the discussions upon the Land Bill.

Dr. W. Hardwicke, the Coroner for Central Middlesex, died on Friday morning under somewhat sudden circumstances. The deceased gentleman on Thursday had been holding some inquests at the Islington Coroner's Court, Holloway-road, and whilst the jurymen were signing the last inquisition paper, complained to his secretary, Mr. Walter Schroeder, who was sitting beside him, that he felt faint, and Dr. G. Wight, of Liverpool-road, Islington, divisional surgeon to the X Division, and a witness in one of the cases, advised that he should be taken home at once. The deceased was taken home, where he gradually sank, and died early the following morning, death being due to the rupture of a blood-vessel on the brain, or apoplexy.

The Czas of Cracow reports that the Nihilists had laid a plot to abduct the son of the reigning Czar, the heir apparent to the Russian Throne, but that, owing to an indiscretion, the plot failed. The intention was to hold the Prince as hostage for three weeks, and only to surrender him then on condition of a Constitution being framed. Should no such concession be promised, the Prince would have been condemned to death by decree of the Nihilist Committee, and his head would have been sent to his parents.

An official despatch from General Scobeleff to the Grand Duke Michael states that Sirdar Obas Murad Tikma, the principal leader of the Tekke-Turcomans, arrived at Askabad on the 9th. instant with a number of followers, including several influential Sirdars, in order to declare his submission to the Russian authorities. The chief delivered up his sword to General Scobeleff, who returned it to him in the name of the Grand Duke, assuring him at the same time of the Imperial pardon. Sirma Tikma then swore allegiance to the Emperor. The telegram adds that the country is quiet. The Akhal Tekkes continue to arrive at Askabad from Merv in large numbers. Not a shot had been fired in the Tekke oasis since January 24th. General Scobeleff concludes by declaring that with the submission of Sirdar Tekma, the expedition against the Tekkes is brought to an end.

The New York Committee of the National Rifle Association has received a letter from Lord Stanhope announcing that the English Association will be unable to send a team to the United States this year, but expressing the hope that it may be found possible to do so in 1882. The American Committee has decided that it would be inexpedient to send an American team to England this year.

CAPE COAST CASTLE.

The steamer Humber arrived on the 18th with Colonel Justice to take command of the troops and 460 men of the 2d West India Regiment. The King has sent down four messengers to the superintendent of the Wesleyan Mission and to the merchants of Cape Coast. He asks the superintendent to conciliate the Governor, and when peace is established to send missionaries and school teachers to Coomassie. With regard to the merchants, the King begs them to see the Governor, apologise to him, and obtain terms of peace. He declares himself deserted by his allies and tributaries, bankrupt and only occupied in repairing the damage caused by the expedition in 1874. He further says he is unable to pay the balance of the indemnity then imposed, and therefore cannot have any idea of making fresh war.

LATEST FROM CORRIENTES.

Estancia Esperanza.

Sir,

As I know you take an interest in the success of your countrymen, the British, in all parts of this Republic, I have ventured to trouble you with an enclosure for the Secretary of the Sociedad Rural, not knowing who is now Secretary, nor if their offices be still in Calle Peru.

I find in your interesting and valuable 'Manual' a notice of the objects and intentions of the society. Mr. J. Firmott kindly took me to their rooms in January 1874, but the secretary was absent. Mr. Firmatt kindly promised to try to get me some seeds in May, but a Porteño gentleman told me his health had failed soon after, and I hear he is now dead. I think I told you that most of the friends introduced to us on our arrival had died of yellow fever.

I hear Dr. Newkirk is likely soon to arrive from Europe; he will probably call on you and tell you how we have struggled after success, in spite of our heavy losses (carting black earth to oranges, &c., every year, manuring heavily, forming soils, watering, &c.); that we work single-handed, as no Englishmen like to remain with us, in our fertile but perilous site on the Corrientes coast.

We have planted seeds of English and Egyptian fruit trees, coffee, &c., not successfully, but are very desirous of trying the growth of olives, of tea (so successfully cultivated in Brazil), and of the dwarf willows for basket-work, grown in the marshes of England. We do not know if the teak of India would grow here, but would much wish to try, also the fast-growing pine and fir-treos of North America, and we have only the white mulberry and anude with the black kind.

We have long desired to establish a school of industry for youths and maidens, but unless some one with sufficient philanthropy could help us it would be impossible, and would involve keeping a store for selling ready-made clothing, dry 'dulces,' cheese, the products of chacras and quintas, &c., and by these experiments we might employ many idle hands.

You say in one of the Standards that it is a disgrace we should have to bring peaches preserved in spirits from Europe, when the fruit is so good and abundant here. I have used my own in this manner for many years and made extracts of lemon, orange, citron and peach-kernel for flavoring; also large quantities of Chili vinegar, mushroom catsup and tomato sauce (to keep.) I mention this to show what might be done.

We hoped to try to rear silkworms, but have given it up.

In your other useful book you regret the neglected state of the 'pobladores,' and with much justice; but, in spite of our earnest desire, with incessant drawbacks, ever-decreasing capital, no returns and single-handed, we can do nothing but try experiments on the very smallest scale.

We hoped to place a steamer on the Corrientes, but it would be seized in the first revolution that supervened.

I have ventured to refer the society's officers to you, as I fear I shall never be able to write or speak Spanish well, and the impossibility of procuring English female servants precludes my studying; but if any of our experiments be crowned with success, it would surely be an advantage to the province in the knowledge gained. Many intelligent men lament that no other Governor has arisen like Dn. Juan Pujol.

May I beg your favour of the direction of the enclosed note and also that if referred to, and not understood, you would kindly state that we heard the society gave seeds, &c., to those likely to use them, our chief object being to seek to elevate the condition and morals of the people around us by every means in our power.

Yours respectfully,

A. C. P.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

On Sunday our much esteemed British Consul Capt. Mallet, with Mrs Mallet and her daughter Florence, left for Europe in the Elbe. For some months past this gentleman has been very infirm, suffering from a chronich disease in the throat; at one time his physicians feared that he would be unable to leave, but within the last week he so much improved that he was able to proceed to the Boca on Sunday, and leave in the little steamer for the Outer Roads. Capt. Mallet has been only with us for about a year, yet in that short space we all had ample opportunity to judge of his sterling worth, and we express the hope of the whole British community when we say that we trust the trip will restore his health, and that he will be able soon to return to the Plate.

The concert given by the Damas de Misericordia at the Coliseum was a most brilliant success. The 'salle' was crammed to the doors with the 'elite' of Porteño society. The programme was gone through in a manner that deserved and obtained frequent and enthusiastic applause. Miss Fernandez Blanco played the National Hymn in a style we have never heard surpassed, even by the best professionals, and Miss Elena Irigoyen's performance on the gitern fairly electrified the audience, and the Coliseum shook with the applause. All the performers deserve almost equal praise. The receipts must have been very large indeed.

The news from Europe is varied and interesting. The death of the Earl of Beaconsfield caused a profound impression, not only in England, but all over Europe. The Duke of Richmond, the Marquis of Salisbury and Earl Cairns are spoken of as his successor as leader of the Conservative party. It is expected that the Irish Land Bill will meet with fierce opposition in the House of Lords. Mr Hardwicke, the well-known London coroner, died suddenly. The Spiritualist case is over, and Mrs Fletcher condemned to one year's imprisonment. A plot to carry off the eldest son of the Czar and send his head to his father in case a Constitution was not granted in three weeks, was discovered and frustrated. The Russian people are greatly exasperated against the Nihilists. There will be no Anglo-American Rifle match this year.

President Roca visited Governor Rocha on Saturday at his official quarters in Calle Moreno. The conversation was not political.

A colleague is ungallant enough to assert that a lady weighing twelve arrobes was knocked down in Calle Peru by a pair of runaway tramway horses. If the President of the Fat Men's Club wants a wife (he weighs 325 lbs) here is his match, presuming the lady to be unmarried.

Dr. F. Moreno, Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, is expected here from Europe before the end of the month. The distinguished explorer will give a course of lectures on his experiences in the Old World.

Should Mr Henry M Kemworthy's brother be now in South America, as he is informed, we are requested to give him the former's address as follows—'al cuidado del Sr Don Andres Egaña (bijo) Monte, Buenos Aires.

We are to have a new French colleague—Le Francais—which will be published every Sunday. We also hear some vague whispers about a new English colleague. The weather is now so cool that it is pleasant to have the Editorial Bus well filled.

An old woman supposed to be a pauper died last week in this city, but another old dame, her bosom friend and confident, told the police that she was no such thing. When 'la autoridad' made enquiries they found that the deceased was very rich, and also that some good natured friend of hers had made off with 300,000 m|c which was hidden in the house. A third dame, a neighbour, is suspected of knowing all about the cash.

The Colon Theatre opera season will open, possibly, to morrow or Thursday night with Lucretia Borgia, Borghi Mamo and Tamagno taking the leading roles. Boito's new opera 'Mephistopheles,' a magnificent work, will be given during the season.

There was a grand banquet at the Italian Exhibition on Sunday night. The menu was splendid and speeches and champagne flowed like water. Both were very good.

"On reading in the Standard of the death of the great statesman; the Earl of Beaconsfield, who was attended by the celebrated Dr Quain

That life is short is not denied,
That science at times is all in vain,
Here is a case—the statesman died,
With all the skill of Doctor Quain."

A musical colleague is pleased to make merry over the fact that Ponchielli's beautiful opera 'I Promessi Sposi' was lately performed at Newcastle, in English. 'Que armonia! Que poesia oyendo los Misters John cantar sentimentales duos de amor y dar do de pecho en Ingles,' The fact is that Italians, Spaniards and Frenchmen have such sweet sounding languages to make love in that they think nobody else understands the science; nevertheless, we 'd back an average Irishman, or occasional Welshman, to beat them all into a cocked hat at it; they 'd be no, where only tor their respective languages.

The papers report that the Upper Uruguay is now infested by pirates. A Brazilian schooner was attacked by an armed vessel last week, but managed to escape. The yard-arm for them.

A general rise in the price of house property in the city of San Luis. The inhabitants have an idea that the millennium is coming, astride of the Iron Horse.

A footpad stopped a gentleman in Rosario one night last week and asked for his money or his life. The gentleman seized the fellow's arm and wrenched a knife from him, then clapping a revolver to his breast asked him what he had to say for himself. The man said he was starving and could get no work. After exhorting him to cease to do evil and learn to do good, the gentleman gave him a good sum, on his promise to abandon his evil courses and take to work. It is possible, but, we fear, not probable that the promise will be kept.

At the Contreras sugar factory in Santiago del Estero an attempt is now being made to make sugar from Sorghum. Every day new plantations of cane are started in this province. The cane harvest will commence in about a fortnight.

The Cordillera passes are now closed by snow, so a balloon or the Pacific steamers is the only resource for travellers bound for the West Coast.

The Industrial is filled with righteous indignation at the fact that 30,000 pats worth of furniture for the Red House is coming out from Europe, and also some clothing for the army. We cannot speak as to the clothes, but, judging from the display of 'muebles' at the Italian Exhibition, we should say that the Buenos Aires upholsterers can turn out furniture not unworthy of Windsor Castle or the Quirinal, and consequently worthy of the National Government House.

The Libertad says that fully 12,000 ploughs will be sold this year in the market of Buenos Aires. More, perhaps. Last year about this time there was nothing selling in this city but Krupp guns, Remington rifles, swords, bayonets and gunpowder. Ploughs are a most agreeable exchange for such articles. God speed the Plough. The same colleague knows of a Frenchman and an Englishman who have gone into partnership to plant 800 squares of flax this year. They will be millionaires this time next year. Nothing pays like flax.

At the 'baile de niños' on Friday night two of the most admired 'caballeritos' were the little sons of Mr Alkaine; they were dressed as English sailors of the Royal Navy.

'Speroni d'Oro' and 'Filomeno' will be given at the Opera House on Thursday night for the benefit of Signor A. Marchetti, who well deserves a bumper from the public of Buenos Aires.

Mdlle. Gemma Cuniberti, the child actress, will make her debut at the Politeama to-morrow in Felice il Cermonioso and other pieces, amongst them 'I Duoi Sordi.' This young lady has a great reputation, and is a dramatic wonder.

VALUE OF PAPER-MONEY.

EMILIO CIVIT.

ON 'CHANGE.

	May 16th
Patacons	28.80
Cedulas A	97½
National Bank Shares	93½
Bonos Prov.	4 prem.

The week has opened on a very hard gold market, and prices for cash advanced from 28.75 to 28.80; the cash sales amounted to 59,747 pats. Prices for the end of the month advanced to 28.70, and for Saturday at 28.75. For June at 28.60 and for July at 28.45. From one cause or other there is a very strong demand for gold, there are rumours on 'Change about the very strong buyer, but we regard it as mere rumour. Gold for the rivers and for passengers is always in demand, and exchange rules so low that it is not extraordinary gold should be high. It may, however, interest the market to know that letters from London received per Gironde asking when the Hard Dollar coupons would be paid in gold in London were shewn to day to President Roca who replied that on the 1st of January, 1882, was the proper answer to send to the people in London.

Cedulas rule firm at 97½ for cash and end of month.

National Bank Shares ruled flat under the pressure of sales by two parties who, according to the Bolsa news, are selling out. For cash there was very little done, but for the end of the month and June about 3,000 shares sold; prices for June show a drop of 1½ on Saturday's rate. The stock shows much sympathy with gold, and we note that whenever gold advances shares drop, as was the case to-day.

There was rather a better feeling in the wool market this morning, and one of our leading export firms has evidently received fresh orders, as it bought on Saturday and to-day; the news from the London auction is that prices are maintained, the wools selling freely, and large attendance buyers. It was feared by the houses here that as the auction opened with a drop before half the wool was sold prices would show a further fall, but such has not proved the case, the wools move off, and it really looks as if bottom has been at last touched in the European wool market.

Mr Coaker, of Concordia, was welcomed on 'Change, he leaves to morrow. Mr W Perkins, of Rosario, took leave of his friends and returns to-morrow. There are few men in the Republic who better understand Provincial affairs than Mr Perkins.

Next week we learn the str. Mensagero, that runs in combination with the Eastern Argentine Railway, will run up to Itaqui, touching at all the ports, and we hear a trip to San Xavier in the Misiones is projected.

On the very best authority we hear that the Arg. Railway Loan has been all resold by the Comptoir d'Escompte, but the price is not so high as that mentioned by some of our colleagues.

At afterhours there was a scene on 'Change when the news spread like lightning that the Provincial Bank, since Saturday afternoon, is collecting the gold for all its gold checks that it held in the safe, and it appears that the great gold purchases by the Bolsa King those last few days were necessitated by this inconvenient move of the Provincial Bank; yet, important and remarkable as this step is, it sank into utter insignificance when some well informed brokers rather authoritatively stated that the bank is preparing to avail of the present low rate of Exchange to ship its gold to Europe. The news stunned the liquidation room, until explained that the shipment of gold by the Provincial Bank merely referred to the Doubloons and Ounces in its vaults, which being almost uncurrent here, the sooner shipped to London and exchanged for sovereigns the better. The Bank, however, would perhaps better consult the requirements of the market, if previous to shipping its ounces, it brought out a couple of millions pats of its gold lying idle in London. The affair has had a 15 cents influence on the price of gold, and when explained and understood seems to be a good move enough on the part of the Bank. But gold closed hard at 4 o'clock and National Bank Shares very shaky, Cedulas are in active demand and like Bonos Provincianos will soon be over par.

R.M.S. Elbe left last night and would leave Montevideo to-day, taking 60 first class and 50 second and third passengers

2000 salted ox and cow hides

2000 cases meat
101 baskets fruit

R.M.S. Trent due here 24th, will leave again for Vigo, Southampton and Antwerp on the 6th prox., and the Mondego of the same line, via Brazil on the 15th.

Letters from London by a well known River Plate man speak most favorably of everything Argentine in that market. The new Land and Loan Trust Company meets with great support and favor and may be regarded as a 'fait accompli.'

It was announced on Change that the Provincial Bank reduces from to-day its rate of interest, notice in another column.

Mr Deputy Achaval's project was another bomb on the roof of the Bolsa; the scheme is the same that we mooted the other day; that the nation takes over from the Provincial Bank all its specie notes up to 15 millions, the amount of its indebtedness, which notes the Government will receive as gold at all its offices and retire from circulation as fast as possible. If this scheme is carried out, the Provincial Bank must return to specie payments as since, as it will hold ample resources to pay specie at the rate of 25 m|c per patacon for all the old paper money in circulation. Verily, the curso forsoso hour glass shows the sands rapidly passing to eternity.

Mr Green has chartered the Italian barque BertalotoSavono to load in the Boca bones and bone ashat 22s 6d for order.

The Venado Tuerto business, as we supposed, has attracted immense notice in Liverpool, London and Manchester, and from letters we received we should say there will be no scarcity of foreign capital for similar investment. The Manchester Guardian, April 11th, received by the Euclid, gives the following—

"Land speculation apparently continues to go on briskly in the Argentine Republic. Reference was made in recent mail advices to a large purchase on account of a Liverpool house. According to the Buenos Aires Standard of March 11th this ploy, comprising 74 square leagues, had been re-sold in the preceding week for £72,000. It cost the Liverpool firm £42,000 in December last. Amongst other items of news brought by the mail is the statement that the Rothschilds have offered to build 800 miles of railroad for the Argentine Government and to receive payment in lands. The weather was excessively dry, and apprehensions of drought were springing up, the weather being the chief topic of interest on the Bolsa. There had been no rain in Buenos Aires for six weeks. The market was still overflowing with wool, the unfavourable advices from this side having caused an accumulation of about 60,000,000 lb. Importers were very busy in some lines of business, money was easy, and immigration was increasing. A steamer of the new Italian line landed 500 Italian immigrants. The exchange on London was quoted 47¾d."

The Custom House returns up to Saturday night for the present month amount to the truly splendid figure of $f.738,605, which for barely half a month shows the trade going on.

Advices by the mail just in state that the passenger or tourist traffic from New York to Europe is attracting great notice; never before have the steamers sailing from New York to Europe taken such numbers of first class passengers. We believe, we may say, the same remarkable feature is noticeable here; never before have our steamers taken so many first class passengers to Europe as at present; the matter indicates prosperity in both countries, when business is bad there are very few trips to Europe. In the week ending April 11th the gold arrivals from Europe reached $f.5,388,760. Let us hope that the week will yet come when the gold arrivals in the River Plate will amount to the same figure.

The mails for the Pacific steamer leaving Montevideo for Europe on 18th closed to-day at 2.30. She takes a very heavy mail.

In the diversity of measures proposed for the amalgamation of our Provincial and National Banks doubtless some one will succeed, and the present miserable state of our monetary affairs undergo a safe and lasting reform. Forced currency, as far as Legislation can go, is certainly doomed, as both houses of Congress are intent on its abolition; yet the question naturally arises if we abolish the paper dollar, what medium of circulation do we offer in its place. The Bank schemes drive at a National currency, but there is something very hazy about the terms of that issue. Is it to be convertible at sight, as it should be, or is it to be a new species of paper issue and backed up more by law and privilege than by specie reserve as legal tender. We fear that as yet we have not seen the scheme that will 'wash' and better even the present paper money as it is than a new paper money that with increased pretensions would spread over the whole country, and if not watched and guarded would envelope the whole Nation in a trouble which at present is limited happily to the province of Buenos Aires. Each day now brings its project, perhaps at last we shall hit upon the best and most feasible, and then two hundred brokers may take to sheepfarming.

The departure of Mr John Drysdale for Europe was the subject of ovation; close on a hundred friends met at Calle Moreno, where a grand lunch was spread. Special tram coaches took the friends to the Central Station where a special train was in waiting, and at 1.30 p.m the party arrived at the Boca. As the little steamer left her moorings at the Drysdale wharf the cheers of the crowds assembled on the wharf re echoed through the Boca. We never before saw such a demonstration. Some of the first men in this market stood on the mole, waving their hats, whilst the steamer sailed down the Riachuelo. We wish Mr Drysdale a most pleasant tour, and hope to see him back in a few months.

Amongst the passengers who left on Sunday were Mr Langley, estanciero, 9 de Julio, Mr Dickenson of Cañada de Gomez, Mr Gibson, and many others whose names we forget. Sunday was indeed a leave taking day; all the small steamers were taken up, and the Mole and the Boca were jammed with passengers and their friends.

The Euclid's Mails

The Constantinople correspondent of the Times has visited Chios, and telegraphs the following account of what he saw :—

The town looks as if it had been subjected to a terrible bombardment. Hundreds of houses have been transformed into a shapeless mass of ruins, under which lie buried an unknown number of victims. A majority of the remaining houses, already cracked and roofless, may fall at any moment. Nearly every building in the town has suffered more or less severely. The unhappy inhabitants wander about, anxious to search for missing relatives and lost property, but afraid to risk their lives in the perilous work of clearing away the rubbish. Many who are willing to expose themselves to the danger are prevented by their friends or the police. Fear, grief and despair are depicted in nearly every face, and all have some sad or tragic tale to tell. The first shock was felt on Sunday afternoon, about half-past one o'clock, and immediately the houses began to fall. Wild shrieks were heard on every side, and then followed an awful silence of some minutes. The terrified survivors gradually ventured out into the narrow lanes and reached the open spaces. Shortly afterwards another terrible shock occurred and completed the devastation. The mysterious subterranean forces then remained quiet till sunset, when they again began to shake the island throughout as severely as before. All night shocks succeeded each other at short intervals, each one being preceded by dull sounds like subterranean explosions. Since that time frequent shocks have been felt. A fewminutes ago, while writing this decpatch, I distinctly heard the explosion-like sound and felt the earth tremble; but, as I am under canvas, I have nothing to fear. The old Genoese fortress, containing about 400 houses, inhabited by Mussulmans and Jews, has suffered more than the rest of the town. The ground there sank about half a metre, and nearly all the houses were immediately destroyed. Several hundred persons must have here perished. The southern part of the island is said to have suffered even more than this town, but of this I shall send you later more detailed information. At present it is believed that throughout the whole island, which contains some 70,000 inhabitants, about 6,000 or 7,000 have been killed and 25 per cent of the survivors wounded. I visited Chesmé this afternoon. It is a town of 1,200 inhabitants, mostly Greeks, situated on the mainland directly opposite Kastro, the capital of Chios. Only about ten of the inhabitants were killed, but many houses are in ruins, and very many more in a dilapidated state. The Mayor of the place assured me that three-fourths of the houses are in a dangerous condition, and the inhabitants afraid to live even in those which are uninjured.

THE UNITED STATES.

New York, April 10.

O'Donnell, one of the Mansion-house conspirators, arrived here yesterday on board the steamer Ville de Marseilles. He stated that there were six persons engaged in the plot, of which he gives a detailed account, according to which the attempt was made out of revenge for the passage of the Coercion Act. O'Donnell adds that the Lord Mayor was selected as the victim because, although himself an Irishman, he had advocated the Act. After the failure of the attempt O'Donnell and Mooney another of the persons implicated, escaped to France, where O'Donnell states Mooney still remains, the other four conspirators being now in England.

A statement has been published to the effect that the Fenian 'Skirmishers' of New York have consulted together regarding the recent affray between the police and the people at Ballaghderreen, and have decided that the deaths of the victims must be regarded as the outgrowth of the Coercion Act, for which they hold Mr Gladstone responsible. The 'Skirmishers' have, it is added, sentenced the Premier to death, and are now stated to be deliberating as to how the sentence shall be carried out.

Mr Coleman, who was supposed to be a Fenian implicated in the Mansion House conspiracy, and who arrived here on board the Anchor-Line steamer Australia, is an Englishman from Norfolk, now resident here. He states that he has returned to America after paying a visit to his native county. If the Fenian Coleman was on board the Australia he must have taken passage under an assumed name, since he was not arrested. The steerage passengers report, that one man, after paying his passage, stepped ashore just as the vessel cast off, alleging that the vessel was not clean. A number of Irishmen have been watching the Lower Bay since Tuesday last, for the purpose of securing Coleman's escape. It is asserted that a private detective agency applied to the State Department for permission to arrest Coleman on the arrival of the Australia, and that Mr Blaine replied that no man should be arrested within the jurisdiction of the U. States without legal process.

The New York Times and Tribune of to-day assert positively that the Fenian Coleman was on board the Anchor Line steamer Australia, under an assumed name, and that he is now safe with his friends in this city.

At Boyle, yesterday, a land meeting, attended by some thousands of persons, was held. Mr O'Kelly, M. P., addressed the meeting, and said that the Land Bill was but another proof of the inability of the English House of Commons to govern Ireland. It entirely failed to protect the rack-rented tenants, and the people of Ireland could not accept it as a final solution of the land question. Mr Sexton, M.P., also spoke.

A land meeting was held at Islandeady, near Westport, yesterday at which a resolution was passed, expressing regret that no better means for amending the land laws had been devised than 'the worthless and broken-down machinery of the Land Act.'

EXECUTION OF NIHILIST REGICIDES.

DREADFUL SCENE ON THE SCAFFOLD

On Friday morning, at 9 o'clock, the judgment of death was executed at St Petersburg upon the State criminals, Risakoff, Jelaboff, Michailoff, Perofskaja, and Kibaichich The execution of the other female prisoner, Helfman, has been postponed in consequence of her being 'enceinte'. Risakoff and Michailoff petitioned for mercy, but their petition was disallowed on the ground that no extenuating circumstances could be taken into consideration in a case so heinous as the assassination of the Czar. The same courtesy which the representatives of the Press met with at the trial was again extended to them by General Baranoff, the Prefect, in giving them admission to the place of execution on the Simonofsky Plain. The last public execution on the same spot was that of Moladetsky, who shot at General Melikoff. The scaffold was a rough wooden structure painted black, consisting of a high platform, upon which were three posts, each with a chain and manacles, and one long horizontal beam, with iron rings for the ropes, supported by two perpendicular posts. In front was a low platform for the officials. The large plain around was covered with snow and ice, melting in the warm sunlight. By 8 o'clock many thousand people had collected around the plain and swarmed in the various streets leading to it. Some nine or ten thousand troops kept them back and formed two squares round the gallows; first the Cossacks, with couched lances, and then detachments of the Guard Infantry massed in deep columns, leaving one side of the inner square open for the passage of the condemned prisoners and their escort. The 'cortege' was seen entering the eastern side of the plain a few minutes before nine, having passed through some of the principal streets on their way from the fortress. The condemned criminals were seated high in the centre of two wheeled platforms, tightly strapped to iron rods, with their backs to the horses, and having on their breasts large cards with the words 'Murderers of the Czar' in black and white. Surrounding them was a strong escort of Cossacks and Infantry, with drums and fifes playing a lively tune, and preceded by mounted gendarmes. On the first of the black cars were bound Jelaboff and Risakoff; an the second, Kibaichich and Michailoff, with Sophie Perofskaja between them. They were dressed in the coarse black robe and caps used only for criminals condemned to death, with their arms pinioned to their sides. They all looked ghastly pale, especially Risakoff, who more than once showed signs of failing strength. They appeared to be conversing with each other as they were driven up to the scaffold. By the time the executioner, a strongly built man of the peasant class, had adjusted five ropes to the cross beam with the aid of an assistant and four prisoners, in white sheepskin coats, who had volunteered for the work, the cars were brought between the scaffold and the low platform, on which now stood the various officials, officers, Senators, the Procureur, General Baranoff, and the officers attached to him, and the members of the Russian and foreign Press. The drums and fifes ceased playing and the troops under General Driesen, commanding the 2nd Division of the Guard, shouldered arms. The men were unbound and led up the steps on to the scaffold by the executioner and his assistants. With the exception of Risakoff, who seemed very feeble, they all showed remarkable firmness and resignation. The woman Perofskaja appeared the calmest of all, and it was noticeable that she even retained a slight colour in her cheeks to the last All the five prisoners were then placed in front of the three posts with their heads bare, Perofskaja being in the middle, while the clerk of the Senate read the sentences from the platform below. The civilians uncovered and the officers saluted during the formality. Five priests in purple caps then mounted the scaffold and presented a Cross, which all the prisoners reverently kissed. Many of the political criminals who have been executed during the last few years have persistently declined the last consolation of their national Church. The prisoners were then allowed to kiss each other. A word or two passed between them, but the beating of the drums, which now began and lasted till the execution was finished, effectually drowned every other sound. The prisoners were placed under the beam, and each had his head covered with a white hood attached to a kind of sack. Each one, beginning with Kibaichich and ending with Risakoff, was led to the top of a small stool with steps; the rope was then drawn tight round one of the supporting beams, and the culprit was left to strangle by the stool being withdrawn from under him. All the prisoners remained firm and imperturbable till the last moment. Risakofi alone appeared to faint before the stool was taken away. The execution lasted altogether about 25 minutes. The bodies remained hanging another 20 minutes or half an hour, and were then let down into five rough shells filled with shavings, and examined by the doctors. They were then placed in two carts and then taken away, under an escort of Cossacks, to be ignominiously buried in a remote part of the suburbs of the city. With the exception of an accident to one of the ropes, which, in the case of Michailoff, broke twice, the proceedings passed off quietly, without difficulty, and were watched in silence by quite 100,000 of the civil and military population of the capital.

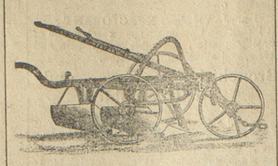
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED PLOUGHS

Howard's Double Plough.



The above implement effects great economy in the time and cost of ploughing, and its success has been very marked wherever it has been introduced. The depth of work can be regulated by the lever as the plough proceeds, and at the ends, the plough is lifted by the same lever clear off the ground.

The implement is so strongly constructed that in the hands of Kaffirs it cannot readily be injured.

Howard's Triple Plough.

This is similar in construction to the preceding implement, but made to take three furrows. It may at once be converted into a Double Plough by the removal of the hinder body, and this is sometimes desirable on ground where the draught is heavy.

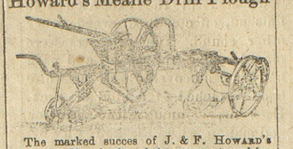
Howard's Mealie Drill Plough



The marked succes of J. & F. HOWARD'S Multiple Ploughs has led to a great and increasing demand for these labour-saving implements.

In addition to the economy effected by their use in time and wages, their usefulness has been materially increased by the addition of a simple drill which deposits the seed in the middle furrow, where it is immediately covered with the earth raised by the next plough share.

By this means the cost of sowing is avoided, and no seed is wasted by being exposed to birds or vermin, nor is it trodden by the draught cattle. The seed is moreover sown at a uniform width and depth, and thus a regular growth of the crop is insured.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of Opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
